Daniel Owen's Practice

Professional clients and licensed access clients and, in the case of Public Access work, lay clients may contact Daniel Owen, at daniel.owen@marinegovernance.com, to obtain a quotation for his legal services.

Daniel's most commonly-used pricing model for legal services is an hourly rate.

He specialises in the law that governs our use of the world's seas and oceans. Within that specialism, the practice areas in which he provides legal services are public law, international law and EU law.

The legal services that Daniel most commonly provides are legal advice and drafting. The main factor influencing the timescales of these services is his existing commitments.

Barristers' Register

The Barristers' Register page on the website of the Bar Standards Board can be accessed here:

<https://www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/for-the-public/search-a-barristers-record/the-barristers-register.html>

The Barristers' Register shows (a) who has a current practising certificate and (b) whether a barrister has any disciplinary findings.

Public Access

Daniel Owen undertakes Public Access work.

The Public Access Guidance for Lay Clients, issued by the Bar Standards Board, is available here:

<https://www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/resources/public-access-guidance-for-lay-clients.html>

The Guidance will help you to understand how the Public Access scheme works and explains how you can use the scheme to instruct barristers directly.

Complaints

Daniel Owen's Complaints Procedure is available here.

That procedure includes, amongst other things, (a) information about (i) any right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman, (ii) how to complain to the Legal Ombudsman and (iii) any time limits for making a complaint and (b) a link to data about final decisions by made by the Legal Ombudsman.
